REMARKS

William Penn is wanted as a suspect in an on-going Carbon Laws-related investigation. The investigation concerns the destruction of the Brier Valley Wildlife Refuge by a human-caused fire on the suspect's property adjacent to the refuge. The fire is suspected in the near extinction of an endangered species. Penn is an experienced mariner known in numerous ports in the Pacific and Arctic oceans. Penn may also have connections to petroleum smuggling in the Arctic Ocean. He may be among a number of kidnapped crew members of the oil-smuggling submarine Extinction, commanded by an ex-Russian navy officer named "Gorov" aka "Gore," last seen departing the port of Churchill, Manitoba, Canada.

CAUTION

Do not approach. If you have any information regarding William Penn, call the BES tip line, the BES Global Operations Center, or your nearest BES field office.
